TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP AVAILABLE

- i) RIDING MEMBERSHIP – Riding members enjoy the full rights and privileges of membership and may represent the Club at Area, Scottish and National competitions; they are entitled to vote at Annual or Extraordinary Meetings convened by committee
- ii) ASSOCIATES – are aged 16 but not yet 17 years; such members have the same rights as Full Riding Members but are not eligible to represent the club at Area, Scottish or National level and are not entitled to vote at an AGM or Extraordinary meeting until they have passed their 17th birthday. Members who join as Associates automatically become Riding Members on their 17th birthday.
- iii) NON-RIDING – Non-Riding members are entitled to vote at the AGM or any Extraordinary meeting convened by committee. They enjoy all the rights of membership but will not be eligible to attend mounted meetings. Non- Riders can upgrade to full Riding Membership at any time, by applying to the Secretary and paying an additional fee equivalent to the difference in price between Non- Riding and Riding subscriptions
